Jetlaw Congratulates Partner Mike Kolich!

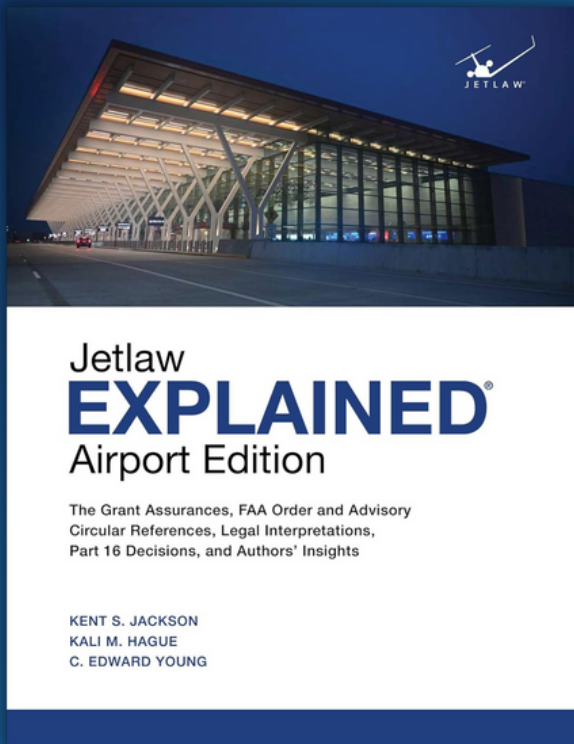

Congratulations to our Partner Mike Kolich for successfully passing his CAM certification exam. Join us in celebrating this remarkable achievement and gain insight into Mike's journey through his own words below:

“In any industry, continuous learning is paramount. As an aviation attorney, I believe in the significance of staying well-versed in both technical knowledge and legal aspects. The process of preparing for the CAM certification not only allowed me to review and refresh my existing knowledge but also exposed me to a wealth of new technical and industry insights.

Obtaining the CAM certification is more than milestone; it is a confirmation that my combined past maintenance experience, current roles as a pilot and legal professional, have positioned me to offer enhanced counsel and education to our clients in their aviation projects.”
